

A week in the life

Meet Rachel,
Principal Consultant

Rachael has her foot in all camps! As well as leading in areas of BD, she supports several clients with varied, complex programmes including grant delivery, transformation, and evaluations.

I love working from home

I like to work undisturbed, I love my home, I love the flexibility it gives me. I do the school run every day, and I'm home for packages! The absolute best thing about my role is I get to work with everyone - my lovely clients are my priority, I typically support around five contracts, with strategic support for others as and when needed. I meet with my clients virtually around 90% of the time, and over the course of a contract I love getting to know people.
